Course Objectives:

This course is an introduction to various concepts that relate to business organizations. It covers principles regarding the creation, governance and control of business associations, such as the sole proprietorship, partnerships, corporations and limited liability companies. Students can expect to blend theory with practical experiences through applying the legal concepts to client scenarios, including case-briefing and in-class practices. Most importantly, you will develop analytical skills that require you to think, write and problem-solve like a business lawyer.

Bar Notification:

THIS COURSE IS NOT A BAR PREPARATION COURSE. USE OF BARBRI OR EQUIVALENT BAR MATERIALS ARE NOT A PART OF THE REQUIRED READING FOR THIS COURSE AND SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LIEU OF THE ASSIGNED TEXTBOOK AND/OR STATUTORY READINGS ASSIGNED BY THE PROFESSOR.

Teaching Methodology:

Lectures will be presented at a minimum to introduce new substantive topics and concepts. The primary teaching methodology will be with cases, problem-solving and collaborative group interaction. BRIEFING CASES and ANSWERING THE PROBLEMS in the textbook (give your best attempt) before class is imperative to the learning process. Students are required to prepare written case-briefs and answers to any assigned problem (as directed by the Professor) in order to be able to discuss the answers in class or in groups. Such assignments may be collected at random.

Required Text:

Klein, Ramseyer and Bainbridge, Business Associations (8th ed. 2012).

Recommended Text: Klein, Ramseyer and Bainbridge, Business Associations, Agency, Partnership, LLCs and Corporations, 2013 Statutes & Rules (Foundation Press).

Note: If the textbook or Syllabus includes reference to the Restatements, Statutes, and/or Model Codes, you should access them through Westlaw or Lexis before class.

TWEN (The West Education Network) for Supplemental Materials: Supplemental materials and additional information related to the course will be posted on TWEN. You must register for this course on TWEN to have access to supplemental materials for the course. It is your responsibility to check TWEN regularly for materials posted.

Syllabus Changes:

Please check the TWEN site for changes to the Readings Assignments for the next class, as the Syllabus Reading Assignments are subject to change. I will endeavor to cover all the assigned readings but I may slow down or speed up during the course of the semester depending upon the students' level of understanding of the materials.

Guest Lecturers:

From time to time, speakers may participate in the class and share their experiences. Given the busy schedules of speakers, I will announce when a speaker will appear in class as soon as practical.

Grading Criterion:

Final Exam:	60% of your grade
Writing Assignments:	25% of your grade
Class Participation:	15% of your grade

Final Exam:

You will only be tested on topics covered in class during the course, and from the textbook, TWEN posted materials and lectures. The Final Exam may consist of multiple-choice questions, short answer essays, or one or more comprehensive essays on a combination of all topics covered in class. To best prepare for the exam, you should participate in class discussions and make prudent effort to complete the writing assignments.

Class Participation and Preparedness:

You are expected to be prepared for class and to participate in the discussions including, completing the required reading and suggested problems from the textbook. Signing the attendance sheet certifies that you have read the assigned material thoroughly enough to discuss it in class or use the knowledge in a quiz or other written exercise. Preparation of a written brief for each of the assigned cases and written answers to the textbook problems will be considered prima facie evidence that you are prepared. If you are unprepared, place a signed and dated note on the lectern BEFORE class and do NOT record your attendance. Students found unprepared shall be given one absence.

In order to earn the full class participation grade, students are responsible for assuring their participation in class by briefing cases, answering questions posed in the discussion and otherwise regularly participating in the discussion with relevant and meaningful comments. You may volunteer for class participation as the Professor designates opportunities during class. Unpreparedness or the inability to brief a case will be counted against the student's class participation grade, at the sole discretion of the Professor. In order to earn the full participation grade, you must adequately participate as set forth in this paragraph. If you have any questions about your participation grade, you MUST make an inquiry BEFORE the last three weeks of class.

Attendance:

Attendance will be taken daily in class by circulating an attendance sheet for you to sign. It is critical that you ensure that you sign the attendance sheet every day you are present and on time for class. If you are tardy, do NOT sign the attendance sheet. You must NOT sign the attendance sheet for anyone else. You are responsible for keeping track of your own absences. In the rare instance that you have a question about your records, you may consult with the Professor who maintains the attendance records based upon the signatures on the attendance sheets.

If you collect more than 3 absences, as indicated by the attendance sheets, you will be withdrawn from the course, in accordance with the policies of the Western State University College of Law set forth in the Student Handbook.

Review Sessions:

A review session may be held several days before the Final Exam. Other review sessions may be scheduled throughout the semester.

Class Recordings:

No videotaping or audiotaping of this class is allowed, except in extraordinary circumstances and ONLY with the express written permission of the Professor.

Classroom Decorum:

Please be seated and ready to begin class at the designated time. Punctuality is expected so any student who arrives after class has begun will be on-call for the entire class for that day.

Out of courtesy to your classmates, please keep distractions to a minimum by not carrying on social conversations with your neighbors while class is in session, by turning off all cell phones and electronic devices other than your computer, and by avoiding leaving the room unless you have an unavoidable emergency or have notified me in advance. Do not attempt to research or otherwise look up information discussed in class until AFTER class as this will only be a distraction and likely because the material has not been fully discussed.

Laptop Usage:

Laptops may be used in the classroom for note taking and class related internet access only. Any other usages must be expressly authorized by the Professor. Unauthorized use of the laptop will result in a loss of laptop privileges in the class for the remainder of the semester.
